

UU FELLOWSHIP OF LONGVIEW

FEBRUARY 2010 PROGRAMS

Sunday Feb. 7th.

Title: "Evolution and the Bible"

Speaker: Rev. Michael Thompson

Lay Leader: Michael Thompson

"Join us as we observe Evolution Sunday, a project sponsored by over 10,000 members of the clergy who've signed a letter asserting that religion and evolutionary science need not be at odds with one another."

Sunday Feb 14th

Title: "Spiritual Colonialism"

Speaker: Celeste Fisher

Lay Leader: Barbara Cavin

Celeste will offer an account of her experience as a student missionary in Cambodia for four months, but also a commentary on the concept of proselytizing, by fundamentalist Christianity, and its effects on both missionaries and indigenous cultures.

Sunday February 21st.

Sunday February 28th.

Title: "The Missing Five Commandments"

Speaker: Phillip Scott

Lay Leader: Marolen Mullinax

Based on a scene from Mel Brooks' History of the World, Part 1, Philip Scott will lead us in an interactive program which probes the question of what was on the tablet Moses dropped

Title: "I Dare You"

Speaker: Megan Dalby Jones

Lay Leader: Megan

The Love Dare is the title of a popular book outlining a 40 day Christian devotional practice intended to transform the marriage of the reader. What is the spiritual practice of love? What does it mean to love? What is transformed by love?
