

June 7th Don Prantl

Is conventional Christianity losing credibility? Can a more authentic Christian tradition emerge from developments that have occurred over the last several decades? What are some of the issues? We will explore some "Christian beliefs" that are being challenged today and take a fresh look at the New Testament message about spiritual transformation:

June 14 - Summer Books:

Jay Noble will lead off with a witty summary of his latest book. Others are asked to contribute a thumbnail sketch of a recommended book. Time limits will be observed in order to accommodate all who wish to mention a book

June 21 - Lora Brandis:

tba. Ms Brandis is a UU ministerial student at Perkins School of Theology in Dallas. She comes highly recommended as a minister-in-training.

June 28 - Tom Stovall:

How Architecture Affects Your Worship Experience. Tom is a retired architect with many years of designing churches and sacred spaces. He is a member of the Tyler UU Fellowship. This is one of our ongoing series of reciprocal programs with our sister fellowship in Tyler.
