

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST FELLOWSHIP of LONGVIEW

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Marolen:

Next Sunday's program will feature Jay Noble as speaker and Celeste Fisher as Lay Leader. Jay's talk is entitled "A Vocabulary of Reverence."

Jay explained his choice of topic by stating: "In 2003, then UUA President William Sinkford said that we as Unitarian Universalists need to develop a 'vocabulary of reverence' in order to be able to enter into effective dialogue with the rest of the religious community. This will be a challenge for UU's. Let's take a look at it together and see if we can identify some of the pitfalls and perhaps come up with some possible solutions."

Sky:

Board Meeting next Sunday (January 10th) following Talk Back. All interested members and friends are welcome to attend.

Huey:

Ellen's Fund-Raising New Year's Eve Party was a double success. First of all, everyone who went and partied in the New Year enjoyed good company, delicious food, live music and lots of champagne! Secondly, all that merriment resulted in a $145 contribution to the UUFL Budget Shortfall Fund. Now that's the way to party!!

Celeste:

Daniel Polk, NTAUUS Board President, will be coming to our Fellowship on January 24th to speak and then do a workshop (from 1:00 - 3:00) with us on the Vision-Mission-Covenant Statements process. Many of us have never participated in the process of developing goals and guidelines for a group we belonged to. This workshop will provide an excellent opportunity to learn all about it. For more information and to sign-up for the workshop, contact me at: Celeste Fisher <celeste551@yahoo.com> or 903--472-8227.

Barbara:

Longview Community Ministries has announced a need for space heaters.

Amanda:

There will be no Social Justice mUUvie night at the UUFL in January. However, there is no need to despair. mUUvie night will return in February.
