

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST FELLOWSHIP of LONGVIEW

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Marolen Mullinax will present next Sunday's (May 9) program. Her talk is entitled "Two Decades in Romania" and she will share her experiences working with the children of Casa Speranta. Jonna Anderson will be the Lay Leader.
- The regular monthly Board meeting will be held next Sunday, May 9 after services. Interested members and friends are invited to attend.

The Laramie Project

The Laramie Project was written by the Tectonic Theatre Project. The play is based on interviews with citizens of Laramie, Wyoming, following the murder of Matthew Shepherd in 1998. The Tyler production will be directed by Trinity Wheeler, assisted by Jennifer Jones. Chris Abraham is the producer. It is suggested for mature audiences.

Tyler Area Gays (TAG) is underwriting the production of this play. Tickets went on sale May 1 and will probably go fast. There will be three performances of the play: June 17, 18 and 19 as a special event in the Braithwaite Theatre at Tyler Civic Theatre Center. Curtain time is 7:30 PM but audience members should claim their tickets at a Will Call table no later than 7:15 PM. Tickets unclaimed by 7:15 p.m. will be sold to stand-bys. The doors will open at 6:30 p.m.

Tickets are $20 each, which includes a donation to the charity marked for that performance.

Go to <http://www.tylercivictheatre.com/individualtickets.html> to purchase tickets on-line.

- John and Karen Pantzer have stayed in touch with our Fellowship after moving to the Dallas area by requesting to remain on our email list. I received the following note from John a couple days ago:

Perhaps you would be kind enough to put a web page link in the next UUFL Announcements for me? I am raising funds for the MS Association of America (and helping myself with much-needed physical fitness) through swimming. The link is <http://support.msassociation.org/goto/Swim4Karen> and the page at that address gives the details. If this is appropriate for the Announcements, I'd be grateful for the additional "advertising".

Thank you,
John

REMINDERS

Celeste:

The UUFL Annual Congregational Business Meeting (ACBM) will be held after services on Sunday, May 16. All members and friends are invited to attend. We will be voting on a Behavioral Covenant, the annual budget, and all governing board positions.

The proposed covenant is now posted at the Fellowship and on our website (uulongview.com). Hard copies are available in the lobby.

Friends and members of the UU Tyler Fellowship will be joining us here for services on Sunday, May 23. We will hold our monthly pot luck on that Sunday in order to share our favorite main dishes with them. They will treat us to their best desserts.

Farmers Market

Danielle Heard has been working to set up a farmer's market in Longview and it is scheduled to open May 15th. This is an opportunity to spend your food dollars on locally and organically grown fruits and vegetables.

Danielle writes on her blog: "The new farmers' market will open on Saturday, May 15, 2010 in downtown Longview, Texas on the historic Kelly Plow Works site which is located at High, Cotton and Center Streets. The market will be open initially on Saturdays and will expand as the growing season develops. The hours of operation will be 8:00 AM - 1:00 PM each day the market is open. "
