

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST
FELLOWSHIP of LONGVIEW

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Marolen:

This coming Sunday, June 20, our service will be conducted by UU intern minister, Megan Dalby Jones. The title of her talk is Father Sky and the Green Man. In honor of Father's Day, Megan will explore the archetype of the Sacred Masculine.

And a reminder about the following Sunday's program: It will be Poetry Fest and Pot Luck on June 27. Bring your favorite poem and food to share.

Huey:

Zoe and the children have decided to have an on-going fund raiser to help offset the costs of the Child Care program. They will be collecting and crushing aluminum cans for recycling. A helpful adult will take them to the scrap metal yard once a month. You are invited to participate in this worthwhile project by bringing all your aluminum cans to the Fellowship every Sunday. There will be a special barrel for you to put the cans in.

Lou Ann Smoot:

Don't forget that "The Laramie Project" at the Tyler Civic Theater is this Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. The tickets are $20 each--a very reasonable price for a quality production.

Event: The Laramie Project - Performances Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 17, 18, and 19

Start Time: 7:30pm

Where: Tyler Civic Theatre
