

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST FELLOWSHIP of LONGVIEW

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Marolen:

Next Sunday, June 27, we will have a Poetry Fest and Pot Luck Luncheon. Everyone is invited to participate by reading a favorite poem. Philip Scott will be Lay Leader and, hopefully, share one of his poems.

After services we will have a Pot Luck. Bring something delicious to share and enjoy some fellowship and great conversation.

NOTE: Zoe is traveling this week and may not be back in time to do Child Care. If that happens, and there are children who need to go in the Child Care Room, we will need a volunteer to watch them.

Huey:

A reminder: The children are collecting and crushing aluminum cans as a way to earn money for R E activities and equipment. Please bring your aluminum cans to the Fellowship on Sunday and put them in the Child Care Room.

Megan:

The Church of the Larger Fellowship has an online Adult Religious Education theology course beginning June 28 entitled The Life and Theology of James Luther Adams. Go to clf.uua.org and click on Religious Education for more information.

Gabi:

I am moving back home to Germany in August and will be able to take only one of my two dogs, Big Boy and Ronja, with me. They are neutered / spayed and current on all their shots and on heartworm meds. I know the people from the fellowship are responsible people, so I wouldn't feel so bad about leaving one of them. Please contact me (armefamilie@windstream.net) if you are interested.
