

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST
FELLOWSHIP of LONGVIEW

ANNOUNCEMENTS

&

REMINDERS

Jessica:

We will be taking up a collection for the Guest At Your Table project of the UU Service Committee. There are boxes here at the Fellowship that you can take home to remind you of the upcoming collection. It's also a good place to put your spare change. If you would like more information about this annual UUSC project, go to their website (uusc.org) and click on the Guest At Your Table tab.

Marolen:

Next week's (Sunday, November 29) program will be presented by Ruth Semrau. Her talk is entitled The Cathedral of the World which was written by Forrest Church who died on September 24th of this year. From his obituary in the Winter 2009 edition of UU World: "After earning a PhD from Harvard in 1978, Church was called to All Souls Unitarian Church in New York City, where he served for 30 years.

Sky:

Next Sunday, the last Sunday in November, is Pot Luck Sunday. This is one you don't want to miss! We will be serving left-over Thanksgiving family favorites. Just double your recipe for that mouth-watering masterpiece when you're preparing the Thanksgiving dish you are famous for and bring it with you when you come to the Fellowship Sunday. You will be in good company.
