

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST FELLOWSHIP
of
LONGVIEW

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Marolen:

Next Sunday's speaker is Megan Dalby Jones, UU ministerial candidate. Her talk is entitled "Daily Acts of Domestic Faith: A Unitarian Universalist Hanukkah Reflection." Come join us in an exploration of the meaning of this holiday season with Megan as our guide. Then enjoy an informal discussion afterwards as Megan answers our questions.

Lisa:

The sign-up calendar for Sunday Snacks is on the end of the counter. You can sign up for any Sunday you would like to bring some fruit or pastries to share, help set things out, make coffee, clean up afterwards, and start the dishwasher. If all that is not your thing, you can make a financial donation and we will do the work. Just let me know and I will give you a receipt.

Marolen:

How would you like to contribute to a most important and worthy cause by going out to dinner? If you would like to help East Texas Child Advocates make sure no child gets "lost in the system" while in the foster care system, just treat yourself to dinner at the Cotton Patch restaurant (on McCann Road in Longview) Tuesday, December 15th and they will donate 15% of their proceeds to ETCA. Invite your friends and family to join you!

Chip:

Friday, December 18th will be Social Justice mUUVie night at the Fellowship with FREE admission and drinks. Feel free to bring your own snacks. Doors open at 6:30 Movie starts at 7:00. We will be showing Ten Questions For The Dalai Lama.

ABOUT THE FILM

Written By: Rick Ray
Original Music Score: Peter Kater
Starring: The Dalai Lama, Rick Ray
Directed By: Rick Ray

How do you reconcile a commitment to non-violence when faced with violence? Why do the poor often seem happier than the rich? Must a society lose its traditions in order to move into the future? These are some of the questions posed to His Holiness the Dalai Lama by filmmaker and explorer Rick Ray. Ray examines some of the fundamental questions of our time by weaving together observations from his own journeys throughout India and the Middle East, and the wisdom of an extraordinary spiritual leader.

If you had only one hour, what would you ask?
