

MARCH 2010 PROGRAMS

Sunday March. 7th.

Title: "New Beginning"

Speaker: Jo Ann Porterfield
Leader: Ruth Semrau

Jo Ann will speak to us about starting over in life, why we should, things to avoid and gains attained when we do.

Sunday March 14th.

Title: You Might be a UU if ... "

Speaker: Scottie Johnson
Lay Leader: Scottie J.

As members of a creedless faith, Unitarian Universalists sometimes have difficulty explaining their religion to others and themselves.

This sermon takes a humorous-- and serious—look at what beliefs are held in common by UUs. You are encouraged to take the "belief- O- Matic" quiz at WWW.beleifnet.com and bring your results to church on March 14th. The quiz takes about ten minutes.

Sunday March 21st.

Title: "Cambodia, the country and people"

Speaker: Celeste Fisher
Lay Leader: Barbara Cavin

More information to follow.

Sunday March 28th.

Title: "What I've learned so far at the Jail"

Speaker: Sherry Kircus
Lay Leader: Tina Rushing

After two years of working at the Caddo Correctional Center and the Parrish jail, She will share with us what she is learning about people, families and life, and how our Unitarian Universalist faith has been beneficial in preparing her to work with people. Sherry said, Going to jail (to work) has been one of the best learning adventures of her life. And she is eager to share that adventure with us.
