

UU FELLOWSHIP OF LONGVIEW

MAY 2010 PROGRAMS

Sunday May, 2th.

Title: "The Jesus Agenda"
Speaker: Jessica Noble
Lay Leader: Celeste Fisher

"How Scholars are making Theology more Scientifically Credible, historically Convincing and Globally Relevant"

Sunday May 9th.

Title: "Two Decades in Romania"
Speaker: Marolen Mullinax
Lay Leader: Jonna Anderson

My Life with the Children of Casa Speranta

Sunday May 16th.

Title: "Life Seasons"
Speaker: Judith Ward
Lay Leader: Tom Mitchell

We each live through seasons of our lives where the need for a qualified person to help us becomes exceedingly important.

Sunday May 30th.

Title: "UU Congregation"
Current Events Discussion

Sunday May 23th.

Title: "Unholy separation"
Speaker: Martin Bryant
Lay Leader: Marolen Mullinax

Can any true spirituality be separated from anything? What about separation of church and state and the scientific objectivity? Could these be "unholy"? Martin Bryant of Houston, Texas, is an industrial software trainer, dad, world traveler, and amateur choral composer, a long time Unitarian Universalist; he was a co-founder of Wildflower Church (UU) in Austin.